'Prepping your clients for January Detox'

This Fourth Geminar in a series of 8 will be based around 'Prepping your clients for January Detox'. We will be discussing and showcasing how to use and work with our recommended Spleen and Liver treatments to get your client's body into an improved, cleansed and refreshed state for the New Year; using a number of different Gemcups. The Geminar will cover in detail how using simple Theragem therapies will help to form treatment packages and how to inspire starting a Detox and diets program in January (when diets and detoxing become popular), and also improve and develop your skills as a therapist/medical professional within your business. This inspiring Geminar also includes case studies, videos and much more! Via the online experience it is a fantastic way to ask any questions and will go into detail of how to get your clients into a more relaxed state of homeostasis.

'Lightly Influenced' and 'Heartfelt Healing'

These two 'double delight' Geminars will be scheduled on the same day as a one off back to back intensive learning webinar. The first Geminar will be based around 'Lightly Influenced' (the light). In this Geminar we will explore the influence of light in our lives, bodies, emotional, mental states and even explore how the spiritual state can develop by different phases of light and colours.

This Geminar will cover comparisons on bio-photons, Kirlian photography, laser light, light readings and how to optimum use of dark and light in your therapy, and why this could produce even more successful results

The second Geminar will be based around 'Heartfelt Healing' and how to market your heartfelt therapies. This Geminar will bring a taste of how remote healing works and how to market products around a busy month such as Valentine's Day, to your clients. The Geminar will cover what remote healing is, how to promote products which you can combine with your current therapies, such as LadyGem and TigerGem as well as Gemcups of the month!

This love themed Geminar will include videos, pictures and provide you with a fun and knowledgeable way of learning.

These Geminars will also provide you with case studies and a chance to ask any questions related to the Geminar topic! If you are listening at a later time, and have Q's that need A's on the present topic DeTox than please email us, we will incorporate them in the next!

'Attention to Assemblage Point'

This seventh Geminar will be based around 'Attention to Assemblage Point'. This Geminar will explore a guide and discussion on the Assemblage Point and its many implications on the overall wellbeing and staying in there. This can often be called The Missing Link, as it has been considered by many as having seen a stillness and acceptance for the better with the AP Reconnection with Theragem in regular sessions. Acceptance of one's situation in the giving up of a fight, turning into cooperation with, such that diets, lifestyles and more are then allowing the client to jump on the flow of a happy life with confidence and trust. You can watch the Geminar live or on recording as many times as you wish. We also always leave a section of the class for Q&A, so you can note down any questions you have in this interactive fun Geminar!

'Detox 2 - Further method'

This Geminar will advance from the first part of Detox methods and explore how further methods can be used in your practice to help your clients better achieve homeostasis. The live Geminar will go deeper on the level of why it's so important your client has a healthy spleen and liver to maintain a healthy happy lifestyle and promote longer living.

Furthermore, we will be discussing and showcasing how to use and work with our recommended Spleen and Liver treatments to get your client's body into an improved, cleansed and refreshed state for a happy mind in a happy body; using a number of different Gemcups. The Geminar will cover in detail how using simple Theragem therapies will help to flush out bad toxins and how to inspire starting a Detox and diets programs to keep your clients healthy.

Via the online experience, it is a fantastic way to ask any questions and will go into detail of how to get your clients into a more relaxed state of homeostasis on a deeper level.
